

Bruce Miyashita

Bruce divides his time between the Tom & Nancy Miyashita Foundation which he formed in 2015 in honour of his late parents and his consulting practice Miyashita Advisory.

The Tom & Nancy Miyashita Foundation is focused on work to build practical life and employment skills in young adults in areas such as applied math, communication and team problem solving. Miyashita Advisory is focused on Bruce's expertise in Process Excellence which includes the Toyota Lean philosophy and business analytics.

Bruce has held several executive positions including Head of the Process Centre of Excellence at BMO Financial Group, Vice-President Six Sigma at Maple Leaf Foods Inc., and Director of Strategic Initiatives at Bombardier Inc. He was also a consultant at McKinsey & Company.

Bruce is an Honorary Member of the Fogo Island Arts Advisory Board. FIA is part of a cultural and social-capitalism effort in the Fogo Island region of Newfoundland. In 2017 he was inducted into the Princess Margaret Cancer Centre Hall of Fame for his fundraising activities.

Bruce is a cyclist and photographer and is also a collector of wine, art, and vintage jazz records. He has an undergraduate degree in Arts and Science from McMaster University and an MBA from the Ivey School of Business at the University of Western Ontario. He resides in Toronto Canada.

Professional blog www.xray-delta.com

www.linkedin.com/in/brucemiyashita

February 2020