Dear Students of ARTSSCI 4HS3 / History of Science Inquiry,

The university community takes the health and wellness of our members seriously and we are interested in slowing the potential for spread of COVID-19. We are committed to ensuring the successful completion of the current academic term by all of our students. While the University has taken many measures to prepare and keep our community informed as the pandemic has unfolded, the university has made a decision to suspend classes at McMaster.

McMaster in-person classes and tests for undergraduate and graduate students will end as of Friday 13 March 2020 and no in-person exams will be held at the end of this term.

The following describes what you can expect for ARTSSCI 4HS3 / History of Science Inquiry between now and the end of the term:

Between now and Tues. 7 April 2020, you can expect the following changes with respect to course instruction for this course:

- Lectures and presentations will be delivered at their normal scheduled time, Tuesdays from 2:30 – 5:30
- Office hours will remain at their usual time, but moved online
- Class and office hours will take place at this Zoom link

In addition, you can expect the following changes to the assessments used for this course:

- The weight of all assignments will be unchanged
- The due date for the final paper will be April 10th, as originally scheduled
- Do not hesitate to reach out if you have questions or concerns about the final paper, including how to find resources online. Do not forget that the libraries are still open.

If you have a need for accommodations, please continue to communicate with Student Accessibility Services and keep me informed.

In the event of significant changes to the COVID-19 situation, further changes may need to be made to this course. Please visit <https://covid19.mcmaster.ca/> for up-to-date university information.

Sincerely,

Matthew Jordan
